

The EU T+1 Industry Committee

Summary of Conclusions, Thursday 7 May 2026

Executive Summary:

Arnaud Jochems was appointed as a new settlement workstream co-lead as Kathy Waldie informed the Industry Committee that she would step down.

Launch of the next EU T+1 Readiness Survey was agreed to be slightly postponed. The survey would run for ca 4 weeks until 9 June.

The Industry Committee would aim to publish the T+1 Checklist and 2nd version of the T+1 Handbook by early June.

The SFT Gating Event FAQ and best practices document was agreed to be distributed to the IC for its comments by end of May. Additional, forward-looking input on the Gating Event would be welcomed by end of July.

Q2 2026 Priorities

Priorities for the second quarter of the year will include:

- SFT Optimisation TF to draft additional guidance and market practice for the use of the Gating event
- Release 2nd version of T+1 Readiness Survey, collect and publish its results
- Publish 2nd release of T+1 Handbook
- Publish T+1 Checklist

- To increase communication reaching beyond Europe and emphasising the message that strong early momentum must now translate into concrete operational change across the industry.
